KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Don Phillips, Corporate Safety Director for NTN USA, founder and President of SafetyDon, LLC,

Thursday, September 22, 2022 at Lunch

Don Phillips will present “Some Things I Have Learned as I’ve Aged”. This interactive presentation examines where safety professionals come from, and how our personal and professional experiences combine to make us better trainers, leaders, and examples for our fellow employees and those we are charged with protecting.

Mr. Phillips is the Corporate Safety Director for NTN USA, founder and President of SafetyDon, LLC, and a qualified OSHA Outreach trainer. Don has spoken locally, nationally, and worldwide on a variety of topics including employee and public safety, compliance, and training. He is an author and frequent guest on radio and television programs where he provides insight on industrial and personal safety, including WGN and the John Williams Show.

In his spare time, Don is the “Voice of The Coalers”. He has announced over 3,000 sporting events in Coal City, IL at the high school, college, and professional levels. He has been married to Melissa for 30 years and they enjoy fishing, biking, traveling, and serving as Masters of Ceremonies for local charity events.

Don is a regular attendee and presenter at the CSHEC and we are excited to welcome him back as Keynote speaker to share his 25 years of experience in safety excellence.
